WHEREAS, Illinois currently ranks among the top states in the nation for the number of National Board Certified teachers, with over 7,000 NBCTs statewide working across public schools, charter schools, and educational cooperatives; and

WHEREAS, The State Board of Education and the General Assembly have both supported certification through candidate subsidies, incentives, and recognition programs, affirming the State's investment in teaching quality and student outcomes; and

WHEREAS, NBCTs in Illinois often serve in critical leadership roles, such as mentors, instructional coaches, administrators, and policy advocates, leading to the elevation of the profession while improving school performance; and

WHEREAS, NBCTs are also noted for their longevity and dedication, contributing to higher teacher retention rates, thereby helping to address workforce shortages and strengthen educational continuity for Illinois students; and
