Subject: SIUE Police Department – 2024 Body-Worn Camera Annual Report

Dear Grants Manager,

In accordance with the Illinois Law Enforcement Officer-Worn Body Camera Act and associated grant requirements, please find below the 2024 annual report for the Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Police Department's (SIUE PD) body-worn camera (BWC) program.

Department Overview: The SIUE Police Department currently consists of 40 sworn police officers, each of whom is assigned their own body-worn camera. All officers are required to utilize their cameras in accordance with department policy and state law.

Program Oversight and Compliance: Supervisors (Sergeants) conduct monthly reviews of calls for service and case-related video recordings for each officer under their supervision. These reviews are formally documented on a recurring basis to ensure accountability and policy compliance.

Data Summary

- Criminal and Traffic Offenses: Please refer to the attached Supporting Information.
- Civil Proceedings Recorded: 0
- Pending Internal Investigations Involving BWC Footage: 0
- Internal Investigation Data Please refer the attached Supporting Information for a summary where applicable.

Technical Performance: The SIUE PD did not experience any technical issues with its BWC equipment in 2024 that required remediation. All devices remain fully operational.

Should you require any additional information or documentation, please feel free to contact our office.

Sincerely,

David Goodwin
Chief of Police
